Research and Sponsored Programs - Research & Grants:

Name of Grant:	Percent of Time:	Start Date:	End Date:	Amount $

Faculty members working on sponsored projects are generally expected to be onsite unless their research requires off-site activities. As an academic year faculty, you do not earn annual leave. If you take vacation during the summer, it must occur during the time you are not being compensated on the sponsored project. When you are committed full-time to a sponsored project or projects you should not spend time on other unrelated activities e.g. writing proposals for future funding, traveling on business not related to that sponsored project(s), preparing for classes, attending university meetings, unless these activities are allowable expenses on the particular source of funds. You will be required to certify on the summer Personnel Activity Report (effort report) that you worked on the sponsored project during the period for which you received summer salary and for the amount of time for which you were compensated.
