INTRODUCTION

The Faculty Handbook is the official statement of University of Northern Iowa (University or UNI) policy governing the rights and responsibilities of faculty. The Office of the Provost and Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs (Provost) is responsible for maintaining the Faculty Handbook and posting the Handbook on its website.

This Handbook is updated annually by the Provost’s Office following consultation with the Faculty Handbook Committee (FHC). The FHC is a standing, joint committee of six administrators, including the Associate Provost for Faculty, appointed by the Provost; and six faculty members appointed by Faculty Leadership (United Faculty President, Faculty Senate Chairperson, and the Chair of the Faculty). Membership on subcommittees should be composed of an equal number of administrative and faculty representatives. The FHC shall be chaired by the Associate Provost for Faculty. Faculty and Administrative representatives will serve rotating, three-year terms, excluding the chair. Terms may be renewed. Appointments by the Provost and Faculty Leadership should take place by March 15 of each year to take effect July 1.

The FHC will convene on a regular basis to discuss issues that are of mutual interest to faculty and administrators. Faculty or administrators wishing to propose changes to the Faculty Handbook may submit proposed changes, in writing, to the FHC. The FHC will typically consider proposed changes to the Faculty Handbook in the academic year in which such changes are proposed. If a majority of the entire FHC votes to adopt a proposed change to the Handbook, the FHC will consult with the Faculty Senate and Faculty Leadership before presenting to the Provost any recommended changes to the Handbook. The FHC’s recommendations will include the vote of the committee and may include dissenting opinion(s). The Provost shall either accept or reject the recommendations of the FHC. If the Provost rejects the recommendations, the Provost will provide to the FHC written reasons for the rejection. Subject to limited exceptions, any changes to the Faculty Handbook will not take effect until the beginning of the following academic year.

This Handbook supersedes all prior UNI handbooks that are inconsistent with its current provisions. This Handbook does not create a contract of employment between UNI and its employees. To the extent that any provision of this Handbook conflicts with University or Board of Regents, State of Iowa (“Board”) policy, any applicable collective bargaining agreement, or applicable state or federal law, such provision shall be void.

The Faculty Handbook supports the University of Iowa Vision, Mission, and Values (see page 2).

CHAPTER ONE: FACULTY GOVERNANCE

The Faculty at the University of Northern Iowa are represented by three governing agents: the Faculty Senate, the Faculty Chair, and United Faculty. All three represent the faculty as a whole and play a central role in the shared governance of the university. All three share responsibility for the protection of academic freedom, the fair and equitable application of policy, the advancement of the university's mission, and the promotion of faculty success.

University Faculty Senate

“The principal representative agency of the University faculty shall be the University Faculty Senate, which shall have the power to act for the faculty on all matters within its jurisdiction.” Constitution of the Faculty, Article V, 3.0. The Senate is primarily responsible for issues of educational policy and curriculum. The province of the Faculty Senate is outlined in the Senate By-Laws: https://senate.uni.edu/uni-faculty-senate-bylaws.

Faculty Chair

The Chair acts as spokesperson for the established policies and positions of the faculty to officers of the administration, to the press, to student leadership representatives, and consistent with Board policies and regulations to the Board of Regents. Details are found in the Faculty Constitution, Article II: https://senate.uni.edu/constitution-faculty.

United Faculty

United Faculty is the certified, exclusive, and sole collective bargaining representative for the faculty pursuant to the relevant Public Employee Relations Board (“PERB”) orders. It is primarily responsible for issues of salaries, working conditions, and other labor relations matters. Details of the current collective bargaining agreement and other faculty resources are available at: https://ufaculty.uni.edu/.

Faculty Leadership

For purposes of this Handbook, “Faculty Leadership” shall refer to the Faculty Senate Chairperson, the Chair of the Faculty, and the President of United Faculty.
CHAPTER TWO: FACULTY APPOINTMENTS

Section 2.0 Appointments
General terms and conditions of appointments shall be stated in writing. In addition to the letter of offer, all appointments are governed by University policies.

Subdivision 2.01 Non-Discrimination
Evaluation of an individual with respect to appointment to the faculty is made without reference to age, national origin, race, color, religion, creed, political affiliation, veteran/military status, disability, pregnancy, gender or gender identity, sexual orientation, or any other status protected by applicable federal or state law.

Subdivision 2.02 Qualifications
For all appointments to the faculty, the primary standard is that the candidate to be appointed is the candidate best qualified for the position among those available for it.

Subdivision 2.03 Terminal Degree
It is expected that Faculty Members will have, at the time of appointment or within a reasonable period thereafter, the terminal degree appropriate to their disciplines and positions, except as noted in Paragraph 2.033. Specifically:

Paragraph 2.031
For initial appointment at the rank of Assistant Professor, candidates will normally possess the appropriate terminal degree and will show experience of or strong potential for excellence in teaching, productive research/scholarship/creative achievement, and professional service.

Paragraph 2.032
For initial appointment at the rank of Associate Professor or Professor, candidates will have the appropriate terminal degree and will have substantial experience demonstrating excellent teaching, productive research/scholarship/creative achievement, and professional service. Initial appointments at the senior ranks are based on the same criteria as promotion to those ranks.

Paragraph 2.033
Although in most academic disciplines and for most faculty positions the appropriate terminal degree is the doctorate, the University recognizes that in some disciplines and for some positions other degrees are customarily regarded as the highest normally appropriate to scholars in those areas. The University also recognizes that in exceptional instances there can be experience and/or training other than formal degree work that qualify a Faculty Member or candidate as teacher and scholar as effectively as a formal degree program as long as such experience and/or training satisfies the requirements of the Higher Learning Commission. Such instances will be based on a considerable record of achievement, such as a substantial record of published research in professional journals. For those disciplines or positions where the appropriate terminal degree is normally not the doctorate, the degree requirement, if any, will be stated in established policies initiated by the department affected and agreed to by the College Dean and the Provost. In the absence of any established policy to the contrary, the terminal degree for all disciplines and positions is the doctorate.

Section 2.1 Termination

Temporary, term, renewable term, clinical, probationary, and tenured Faculty Members may be terminated, only during an applicable term, for just cause and in accordance with the requirements of due process as approved by the Board of Regents, State of Iowa, June 30, 1973.

Section 2.2 Temporary (Adjunct) Appointments

A temporary (Adjunct) appointment runs for a precisely stipulated short term, usually one year or less. It terminates automatically at the expiration of the stipulated term. It carries no implications of renewal or continuance beyond the stipulated term.

Subdivision 2.21

When allocating courses within a department among Adjunct Faculty Members, seniority (defined as years of service to the University) shall be considered. In addition, reasonable efforts shall be made to maintain half-time or greater status for Adjunct Faculty Members who have already taught continuously for six consecutive semesters or more at half-time or greater status.

Subdivision 2.22

An Adjunct Faculty Member’s course allocation shall be subject to performance evaluations and other extenuating circumstances including, but not limited to, budget and enrollment, when courses are allocated within a department.

Subdivision 2.23

An Adjunct Faculty Member may file a faculty petition relating to this section pursuant to Chapter 11 of this Faculty Handbook. However, the decision of the Provost pursuant to Chapter 11 shall be final.

Section 2.3 Term Appointments

A term appointment is a multiple-year appointment, i.e., one, two, three, or four years, which expires as specified by the initial letter of appointment. Initial appointments may not exceed a total of four years. When positions become vacant by expiration of the term of appointment, a search must be conducted if the position is to be filled.

Section 2.4 Probationary Appointments

Subdivision 2.41

A probationary appointment, like a temporary appointment, runs for a stipulated short term, usually one year. Unlike a temporary appointment, however, it carries the implication that, if the appointee's services are judged by the University to be satisfactory, the appointment will be renewed year after year until, normally, a total of six years of probationary service shall have been accumulated; however, the University may offer reappointment for a seventh probationary year. The tenure standards for the seventh year will be the same as during the sixth year.

Subdivision 2.42
A probationary appointment may be terminated at the end of any term, provided that written notice of the intention to terminate has been given by the University to the probationer in good time. Specifically: if the appointment is to be terminated at the end of the first year, notice shall be given by March 1; if at the end of the second year, by December 15; if at the end of any later probationary year, twelve months in advance.

Subdivision 2.43
The probationary period provides the opportunity to meet the requirements for tenure.

Subdivision 2.44
By March 1 of every year, every Faculty Member on a probationary appointment shall receive official written evaluation of their work to date.

Subdivision 2.45
Continuance of a probationary appointment is made upon a recommendation of the faculty. In the event the recommendation of the Department Head in a continuance of a probationary faculty member is different from that of the Professional Assessment Committee ("PAC"), the Department Head shall provide the PAC with the Department Head’s written rationale and recommendation at the same time the Department Head’s rationale and recommendation is forwarded to the Dean. In the event the recommendation of the Dean in a continuance of a faculty member is different from that of a PAC, the Dean shall provide the Department Head and PAC with the Dean’s written rationale and recommendation at the same time as the Dean’s recommendation is forwarded to the Provost. In the event that the Provost’s decision regarding continuance is different from that of the PAC, the Provost will provide the Dean, Department Head, and PAC with a written rationale for that decision by March 1 as provided in Subdivision 2.44 above. Nothing herein shall diminish the confidentiality of the faculty member’s file. The final responsibility for a decision rests with the appropriate academic officers. The Deans and Provost have a responsibility to ensure that recommendations for continuance or termination of probationary faculty reflect high University standards, while acknowledging the diversity of missions and tasks within the various colleges and programs of the University.

Section 2.5 Renewable Term Appointments
Renewable term faculty hold faculty positions through which they contribute to the service or teaching missions of the University and hold the rank of instructor. Renewable term faculty are not eligible for tenure.
Subdivision 2.51 Terms of Appointment of Renewable Term Faculty

Paragraph 2.511
Candidate must have earned a terminal degree in the field or be recognized as having expertise by the search committee.

Paragraph 2.512
Initial appointment is for a minimum of two years. The initial appointment will be made on the basis of a department/school search process consistent with searches for tenure track positions. The first two years of service are considered “probationary.” Thereafter, reappointment will be for one year at a time, following assessment and evaluation procedures outlined in Chapter 3 of this Faculty Handbook, that conclude with a satisfactory performance evaluation by the PAC and University Administration.

Subdivision 2.52 Transfers
Any individual wishing to move from a tenure-track faculty line or a P&S staff line to a renewable term faculty position must apply for a vacant position for which recruitment has been authorized. A renewable faculty member wishing to move to a tenure-track faculty or P&S line must apply for a vacant position for which recruitment has been authorized.

Subdivision 2.53 Responsibilities and Rights of Renewable Term Faculty
The standard expectation for a renewable term faculty is that teaching is the predominant activity. The position does not have a research component or expectation of research accomplishment, although those activities may be present in some cases.

Subdivision 2.54 Notice of Non-reappointment
A renewable term appointment can be terminated at the end of any term, provided that written notice has been given by the University by March 1 of that year.

Subdivision 2.55 Limitation
No more than 8% of the FTE faculty in any one college can be renewable term unless an exception is made by mutual agreement between faculty members of the Faculty Petition Committee and the Provost. The Provost will report the number of faculty hired pursuant to this section, the percentage those faculty represent of the total FTE faculty by college and will verify the use of an appropriate search process as specified in Paragraph 2.512 above to the Faculty Petition Committee and the appropriate college faculty senate(s) twice per year.

Section 2.6 Clinical Faculty
Clinical faculty hold faculty positions through which they contribute to the service, teaching, and/or outreach missions of the University. Clinical faculty are not eligible for tenure.
Subdivision 2.61
The Clinical Faculty designation is used for positions that require clinical teaching and/or clinical supervision and/or clinical direction, and Clinical Faculty positions are limited to the following academic units: Communication Sciences and Disorders; School of Kinesiology, Allied Health and Human Services; Curriculum and Instruction; and Social Work. Clinical Faculty positions can be authorized in other academic units with the approval of the Faculty Petition Committee. The professional productivity expected of clinical faculty does not include research of the sort expected of tenure-track faculty. The number of such appointments will not exceed 3% of the tenure-track FTE of a college. Clinical Faculty will not be used for faculty positions where classroom teaching is the sole or primary form of instructional activity.

Subdivision 2.62
Any individual wishing to move from a tenure-track faculty line or a P&S staff line to a clinical faculty position must apply for a vacant position for which recruitment has been authorized. A clinical faculty member wishing to move to a tenure-track faculty or P&S line must apply for a vacant position for which recruitment has been authorized.

Subdivision 2.63
The clinical faculty will not have access to the summer fellowship programs or other research-oriented faculty development programs.

Subdivision 2.64
Clinical Faculty shall be temporary, term, or renewable term type appointments.

Subdivision 2.65
Each authorized academic unit may include at least one FTE Clinical Faculty, but the total number of FTE Clinical Faculty shall not exceed 10 percent of the authorized academic unit’s tenure and tenure track FTE faculty. The Provost will report the number of faculty hired pursuant to this section, the percentage those faculty represent of the total FTE faculty by college and will verify the use of an appropriate search process as specified in Subdivision 2.61 above to the Faculty Petition Committee and the appropriate college faculty senate(s) twice per year.

Section 2.7 Tenured Appointments
Tenured faculty hold faculty positions through which they contribute to the teaching, research/scholarship/creative activity, and service missions of the University and hold the rank of Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor, with a small number of faculty who were previously granted tenure with the rank of Instructor (i.e., those who previously taught at Price Laboratory School). Having successfully earned tenure grants faculty an appointment that can be terminated only for just cause or extraordinary circumstances such as financial exigency or program closure. Tenured faculty are evaluated annually under Subdivision 3.43 and may seek promotion under Subdivision 3.6.
CHAPTER THREE: EVALUATION PROCEDURES

The committee shall review and recommend revisions in the current assessment form and/or assessment procedures to the Provost for approval. In the event the Provost does not concur with the recommendation the matter shall be returned to the committee for further review and deliberation. Student assessments shall be administered in accordance with procedures as follows:

Subdivision 3.21 Assessment Procedure
Student assessments shall be administered by the Department Head or their staff designee. Individual Faculty Members may assist and cooperate in the administration of the student assessment but a Faculty Member shall not be required to do so involuntarily. The Faculty Member will leave the classroom when the instrument is administered to their class.
Subdivision 3.22 Probationary, Term, and Temporary Faculty

Subdivision 3.26 Informational Assessments
Faculty Members may conduct additional assessments of their classes for informative purposes. The administration of such assessments shall be arranged by the Faculty Member. The University shall process such assessments but no record of the results shall be kept in the evaluation file or any other file maintained by the University. Only when the Department Head and the Faculty Member agree, prior to the conducting of a student assessment, that such assessment is for informational purposes, will the assessment be processed according to the provisions of this Subdivision.

Subdivision 3.27 Assessment Report
A report of the results of student assessments of a Faculty Member shall be transmitted to the Faculty Member no later than fifteen (15) class days after the last class day of the semester just ended and, except for those covered under Subdivision 3.26, entered in the Faculty Member’s evaluation file. The individual student assessment response sheets, paper or electronic, shall be considered as part of the evaluation file.

Subdivision 3.28 Oral Communication

Section 3.6 Principles, Standards and Procedures for Promotion and Tenure

A Promotion and Tenure decision is a crucial judgment that vitally affects the University, its faculty, its students, and its supporting public. Of necessity, it is a subjective judgment about potential performance based on a current evaluation.

Principles, Standards, and Procedures for faculty appointments, promotions and tenure shall be made available to the Faculty Member in writing no later than September 15 of each year except that when no changes have been made, provision of these materials to a Faculty Member in a previous year shall be understood to comply with this Section.

Subdivision 3.61 Eligibility for Promotion and Tenure

Only probationary faculty are eligible to be considered for tenure. Individuals holding term, temporary, visiting, nonacademic, or appointments other than probationary at the University are not eligible to be considered for tenure.

No person, by time, degree, or accomplishment, acquires an automatic right to Promotion and Tenure.

Subdivision 3.62 Time in Rank Prior to Promotion

Normally an Instructor serves at least three years in rank before promotion to Assistant Professor; an Assistant Professor completes at least six years of service, including at least three years as an Assistant Professor, before promotion to Associate Professor; and an Associate Professor completes at least six years in rank before promotion to Professor.

Subdivision 3.63 Criteria and Procedures for Promotion and Tenure

The following criteria and procedures apply to decisions concerning Promotion and Tenure:

Paragraph 3.631

Tenure and promotion to Associate Professor requires that the candidate have a documented record of accomplishment in teaching, research/scholarship/creative achievement, and professional service. It is recognized that each candidate will have varied degrees of accomplishment in the three areas. Only after an affirmative judgment as to documented teaching effectiveness has been made can serious consideration be given to an evaluation of research/scholarship/creative achievement, and professional service.

Paragraph 3.632

In considering an individual for promotion, attention is given to all available information, such as: evidence of successful teaching; quality of research/scholarship and professional publications; artistic productivity; the esteem in which the Faculty Member is held by students, colleagues, and administrative officers; professional growth; participation in University activities and contributions to the general welfare of the University.
Paragraph 3.633
The primary assessment of the candidate for promotion is made by their colleagues in their department, through established assessment procedures, in accordance with applicable sections of this Faculty Handbook although the decision to promote is the responsibility of academic officers. The assessment will not only include a scrutiny of the candidate's record, but also calls for one or more formal assessments by the candidate's students and classroom visitation by colleagues. Departments may seek assessments of a candidate from colleagues in their academic field in other institutions.

Paragraph 3.634
The person must hold the doctorate or other terminal degree appropriate to their academic discipline. In unusual cases of extraordinary professional achievement, the requirement for the terminal degree may be waived.

Paragraph 3.635
Evaluation for Promotion and Tenure is required during the sixth year of probationary service. The awarding of Promotion and Tenure prior to the expiration of the sixth year of probationary service will be made in cases of exceptional merit.

Paragraph 3.636
The person must demonstrate, during the probationary period, the ability to apply the doctorate, or other comparable terminal degree-level of training to teaching, research/scholarship/creative work, and public professional service.

Paragraph 3.637
Faculty Members who demonstrate exceptional performance in teaching, research/scholarship/creative work, and professional service may be considered for promotion before the completion of the years of service specified above.

Paragraph 3.638
Because the qualifications for promotion to Associate Professor and tenure are identical, an Assistant Professor who possesses the qualifications for tenure generally will receive simultaneous evaluation for promotion to the rank of Associate Professor.

Paragraph 3.639
In those cases of an Assistant Professor who holds tenure, promotion from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor requires a documented record of accomplishment in teaching, scholarship/research/creative achievement, and professional service.
Paragraph 3.6391
Promotion from Associate Professor to full Professor requires recognized and significant accomplishments in the areas of teaching, research/scholarship/creative work, and professional service.

Paragraph 3.6392
A tenured appointment or promotion is made upon recommendation from the faculty. In the event the recommendation of the department head in a Tenure or Promotion decision is different than that of PAC, the department head shall provide the PAC with the department head’s written rationale and recommendation at the same time the department head’s rationale and recommendation is forwarded to the Dean. Nothing herein shall diminish the confidentiality of the faculty member’s file. The final responsibility for a decision rests with the appropriate academic officers. The Deans and Provost have a responsibility to ensure that recommendations for Promotion and Tenure reflect high University standards while acknowledging diversity of missions and tasks within the various colleges and programs of the University.

Paragraph 3.6393
Evaluation of individuals with respect to promotion in rank is made without reference to age, national origin, race, color, religion, creed, political affiliation, veteran/military status, disability, pregnancy, gender or gender identity, sexual orientation, or any other status protected by applicable federal or state law.

Section 3.7 Administrative Evaluation Procedures
Administrative evaluation procedures shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Chapter. Such procedures shall be available to Faculty Members upon request to the Department Head.
CHAPTER FOUR: FACULTY WORKLOAD

Section 4.0 Purpose
The purpose of this Chapter is to define UNI’s priorities for faculty members’ standard workloads. Faculty at UNI are teacher- or librarian-scholars, whose work life encompasses teaching or librarianship, scholarship/creative activity, and service. “Workload” reflects the priorities of our faculty and the university, as well as the expectations for evaluating faculty work.

UNI recognizes, values, and prioritizes teaching as a faculty member’s primary responsibility. The university also values and rewards scholarship/creative activity and service when such activities are part of the faculty member’s assigned workload.

Section 4.1 Definition of Teaching
Teaching is the development, preparation, and delivery of course content. Teaching also includes communicating with students in a course in a timely fashion and supervising and evaluating student performance for courses. The standard form of instruction consists of a course offered by an academic department and delivered in a traditional classroom or classroom equivalent setting, such as through distance education.

Subdivision 4.11 Nonstandard Teaching Activities
Certain non-standard teaching activities are employed by departments and are part of a faculty member's teaching loads. When a department regularly uses non-standard forms of instruction to deliver its curriculum, the Department Head or School Director shall develop, in consultation with the Dean of the College, a description of how the non-standard forms of instruction are converted to equivalent credit hours to be counted toward a faculty members' teaching workload. The credit hour conversion used to determine teaching loads, along with a description of how the conversion was determined, shall be distributed to all probationary and tenured faculty members in the affected academic departments or school no later than the first class day of each academic year. A copy of the conversion description shall be provided to the Dean of the College, to the Provost and to Faculty Leadership by October 1 of each academic year.

Subdivision 4.12 Teaching Overload
Teaching overload occurs when faculty members are assigned and agree to teach more credit hours than specified by their designated portfolio (see Sections 4.7 and 4.8).

Department heads should consult with faculty regarding overload assignments in order to meet the needs of the department and individual faculty members. Faculty who are assigned and agree to more than the equivalent assigned credit hours during the regular academic year shall receive overload compensation for the work at the part-time per-credit-hour-rate specified in the Master Agreement, subject to the limitations of UNI Policy 4.41 Special Compensation and Summer Appointments.
Subdivision 4.13 Faculty Office Hours
Faculty members who have teaching assignments are expected to schedule a minimum of one office hour per class, up to three hours per week each semester. Days, times, and location of office hours should be appropriately matched to the schedule of the faculty member’s teaching assignments. Additionally, faculty members should allow students an opportunity to meet outside of those times through a special appointment request. The mode of office hours offered should be matched to the mode of instruction for each course. Scheduled office hours should be posted and also included in course syllabi. The department office should be notified of scheduled office hours by the end of the first week of each semester. If a faculty member cannot attend office hours, students and the department office should be notified and a notice should be posted and/or entered in the online learning management system, as appropriate.

Section 4.2 Definition of Librarianship
Librarianship is the creation and provision of information, resources, and services that advance critical thinking, scholarly research, and learning in an evolving information landscape. This includes, but is not limited to, the provision of reference services, research consultations, and instruction in support of information literacy; the selection, acquisition, organization, preservation, and administration of library collections and other information resources; and supporting sharing of and access to library collections and other information resources.

Section 4.3 Definition of Scholarship/Creative Activity
Scholarship and creative activity are those discipline-specific or professional expertise activities that result in a tangible artifact or outcome. Scholarship makes use of the faculty member’s professional expertise, and it must be of appropriate quality and be disseminated. The university recognizes, evaluates, and rewards three types of scholarship/creative activity (Discovery, Integration, Application), which are defined and illustrated below. The definitions include but are not limited to the examples provided. The Departmental Standards and Criteria Document may provide additional specific examples of products or outcomes in order to demonstrate these forms of scholarship. The Departmental Standards and Criteria Document must be consistent with Sections 4.4 and 4.5 of this Chapter.

Subdivision 4.31 Discovery
Discovery is the original production or testing of a theory, principle, knowledge, or artistic creation. Examples include a traditional quantitative and/or qualitative data analysis, as well as an artistic or literary artifact (such as a fiction or non-fiction writing, art exhibition, musical composition, or musical/theatrical performance). The university recognizes the scholarship of teaching and learning, such as the evaluation of curricula or pedagogy, as discovery when it produces original knowledge. All discovery scholarship is evaluated within the faculty member’s field of expertise through traditional peer review and is publicly disseminated in traditional outlets, such as journals, books, recordings, performances, or refereed exhibitions. Products produced from the acquisition of grants may contribute to the scholarship of Discovery.
Subdivision 4.32 Integration
Integration is the use of knowledge found within or across disciplines to create an original understanding or insight that reveals larger intellectual patterns. Examples include the writing of a textbook, curating an artistic exhibition, editing an anthology, or integrative work that summarizes or extends what is known about a topic or process. Being awarded a competitive external grant may be considered Integration scholarship. Integration scholarship is peer reviewed and may appear in a variety of outlets. Products produced from the acquisition of grants may contribute to the scholarship of Integration.

Subdivision 4.33 Application
Application brings discipline-specific knowledge to bear to address a significant issue or problem or to influence a current or future condition. Examples include producing a technical report; performing public policy analysis; creating program, curriculum, or tools that are adopted across the state/nation; evaluating a community-based program; or being awarded a patent. Application scholarship is distinguished from service by the presence of peer review and may appear in a variety of outlets. Products produced from the acquisition of grants may contribute to the scholarship of Application.

Section 4.4 Scholarship/Creative Activity for Probationary Faculty
Probationary faculty are expected to engage in the scholarship/creative activity of Discovery, including the scholarship of teaching and learning when it produces original knowledge. Some departments may also evaluate and reward peer-reviewed Integration or Application scholarship/creative activity when consistent with disciplinary expectations and applicable accreditation requirements. Typically, twenty-five percent of a probationary faculty member’s workload shall be allocated for scholarly or creative work, unless a different portfolio has been assigned to the faculty member.

Section 4.5 Scholarship/Creative Activity for Tenured Faculty
Tenured faculty may engage in Discovery, Integration, or Application research within their field of expertise. Each type of scholarship shall be recognized as legitimate for the purposes of annual review, post-tenure review, and promotion to full professor when it has undergone peer review that attests to its acceptable quality and meaningful impact. Faculty members are expected to collaborate with their colleagues and department head to ensure their scholarship is consistent with requirements for scholarship for program accreditation. Typically, twenty-five percent of a tenured faculty member’s workload shall be allocated for scholarly or creative work, unless a different portfolio has been assigned to the faculty member.

Section 4.6 Definition of Service
Service is recognized as an essential component of UNI’s overall workload for all faculty members. Tenured, probationary, renewable term, and term faculty are expected to engage in service to the university, the profession, and the broader community. These faculty may fully participate and exercise shared governance in the life of the university community through service work. Service to the university occurs at the department, college, or university level. Service to the profession includes work for the faculty member’s discipline or disciplinary organizations at the local, regional, national, or international level. Service to the broader community includes those activities that make use of the faculty member’s disciplinary expertise with organizations or communities outside of the university or in one’s discipline. Examples of service to the broader community include but are not limited to performing program evaluation for a nonprofit organization, using disciplinary expertise to advise a community organization on an initiative, and volunteering on the board of a community organization related to one’s disciplinary expertise. Typically, fifteen percent of a probationary or tenured faculty member’s work load shall be allocated for service. Service obligations are to be shared and fulfilled equitably by all faculty members according to their assigned portfolios. Major impactful service activities, projects or outcomes that are peer reviewed may qualify as Scholarship of Application (see Section 4.33).

Subdivision 4.61 Probationary Faculty Service
Whenever possible, the service obligations of probationary faculty shall be reduced in their first two years in order to devote more time to teaching and scholarship/creative activity. They shall increase service gradually to 15 percent of their workload by the time they apply for tenure and promotion.

Section 4.7 Faculty Workload
University faculty workload is designated according to position type, rank, availability and percentages of effort in teaching, research/scholarship/creative activity, and service (see the Workload Summary Table in Subdivision 4.71 and definitions in Sections 4.9 to 4.11). Workload does not designate a prescriptive breakdown of work hours dedicated to each category of responsibility but rather guides faculty and administrative priorities. How faculty members utilize their time varies across the week, semester, year, and career, according to discipline, departmental needs, and individual strengths.

Section 4.8 Workload for Standard Portfolio for Probationary and Tenured Faculty

The standard workload of probationary and tenured faculty at UNI (hereafter “Standard Portfolio”) reflects the prioritization of teaching. UNI also values research/scholarship/creative activity and service. Faculty workload for probationary and tenured faculty on a Standard Portfolio is represented by five components spread across teaching, research/scholarship/creative activity, and service (see Section 4.7). Faculty on 10, 11, or 12 month contracts are assigned an equivalent of one to three additional months of workload according to their official assignments.

Subdivision 4.81 Workload Flexibility Options

Though specific percentages are allocated for research/scholarship/creative activity and service to indicate the university’s Standard Portfolio, upon approval of the department head and dean, differentiated weight may be allocated to scholarship or service workload responsibilities for the purposes of faculty development. Such an approved portfolio will be for one year at a time with the opportunity to renew for up to one additional year. Upon completion, the faculty member's portfolio returns to the Standard Portfolio. Opportunities in applying for differentiated research/scholarship/creative activity and service obligations are available to all faculty members, however, neither scholarship nor service workload obligations shall drop below 5% in contributions per year.

2 Or Librarianship

Differentiated workloads shall be documented in writing by the department head or Dean in a Memorandum of Understanding to the faculty member and placed in the evaluation file. Faculty members who receive course releases are required to report such assignments annually in each Faculty Activity Report, including the activities assigned in lieu of teaching. Applications for tenure and promotion should summarily report such assignments as a part of faculty members’ overall portfolio. Faculty members are to annually document such workloads in their Faculty Activity Report. Each Fall, all differentiated workloads shall be reported by the department head to the Provost and disseminated in a report to Faculty Leadership, Deans and Department Heads.

Section 4.9 Differentiated Workload for Extended Teaching³ Portfolios for Tenured Faculty

Tenured Associate and Full Professors are eligible to apply for a differentiated workload with an additional class to teach (hereafter “Extended Teaching³ Portfolio”). Faculty assigned to the Teaching Portfolio are expected to contribute fully to their specified loads (see Section 4.7).

Subdivision 4.91 Tenured Instructors
Tenured Instructors will be assigned to an Instructor Portfolio, unless an alternate assignment has been arranged with the department head, in consultation with the dean, and documented in a letter of offer or Memorandum of Understanding.

Subdivision 4.92 Eligibility
Tenured Faculty are eligible to apply for an Extended Teaching³ Portfolio when they achieve the rank of Associate or Full Professor. Faculty must also have an established record of teaching excellence, service impact, and service leadership. The faculty member’s request must also align with departmental and university needs and priorities, as determined by the department head and dean, in order to be approved.

Subdivision 4.93 Extended Teaching³ Portfolio Application Process
Eligible faculty members who wish to be assigned an Extended Teaching³ Portfolio may apply for an Extended Teaching³ Portfolio. The faculty member will provide a written request to the department head by the end of the fall semester for the following academic year. The department head, in consultation with the dean, will assess whether or not the eligibility criteria have been met, as defined in 4.92 before deciding whether or not to grant the request. If the request is granted, a Memorandum of Understanding will be developed to outline the workload expectations while the faculty member remains on this differentiated workload.

³ Or Librarianship portfolio. The term for an Extended Teaching Portfolio is typically 3 years and may be renewed through the application process.

Subdivision 4.94 Maintaining Competence in Scholarship/Creative Activity
Faculty with an Extended Teaching Portfolio are required to stay abreast of developments within their field and continue to be engaged in their discipline in order to maintain scholarly competence. Faculty may stay engaged in their discipline by producing scholarship/creative activity, presenting at conferences, reviewing for journals, using their disciplinary expertise in service, engaging in scholarship-oriented faculty development, or submitting grants. This list is not exhaustive. Departments shall develop a list of any additional activities to denote the maintenance of scholarly competence.

Section 4.10 Workload for Renewable Term and Term Faculty
Term and renewable term faculty members’ predominant assigned workload is teaching. They also are expected to perform service and are integrated, full members of the university community.

All teaching assignments and service expectations are to be specified in the faculty member’s letter of offer or annual workload assignment (see Section 4.7). In some limited cases, service may be split between service and scholarship/creative activity, as specified in the faculty member’s offer letter or annual workload assignment.

Section 4.11 Workload for Adjunct Faculty (temporary)
The primary workload assignment for Adjunct Faculty (temporary) is teaching (see Section 4.7). Teaching assignments are specified in their offer letter and paid per course, as specified in the Collective Bargaining Agreement. Any service assignments, beyond those typically associated with teaching courses, are specified in their offer letter and paid per activity or assignment.

Section 4.12 Overload for Special Projects/Course Reassignments
A president, provost, dean, or department head may designate as overload some special, agreed-upon assignments or projects which sufficiently exceed a faculty member’s overall workload. In such cases, a Course Reassignment (release) may be applied or earned. Alternatively, administrators shall compensate faculty by determining the work’s credit-hour equivalency. Department heads shall consult with their dean before assigning special projects.

Faculty on a 9 month contract hired to work during the summer months (outside of teaching summer school) shall be compensated according to the assignment.

The responsibilities, time frame, and compensation shall be outlined in a Memorandum of Understanding or letter of offer.
Section 4.13 Continuing Education and Special Programs

This Chapter will not affect the current methods for determining whether or not courses taught through the division of Continuing Education and Special Programs are part of a faculty member’s teaching load and the method of compensating faculty for teaching courses for the division.

Section 4.14 Modified Duties Assignment

Subdivision 4.141 Definition
A Modified Duties Assignment (“MDA”) is a temporary (i.e., one semester or less) reconfiguration of a Faculty Member’s work assignment (i.e., teaching, scholarship and service) in order to accommodate the Faculty Member’s need for a flexible schedule following their return from a FMLA leave. Modified duties may include but are not limited to: research, scholarship, professional service, curriculum development, development of course materials, accreditation and/or certification materials, departmental operation manuals, communication materials, or undergraduate or graduate recruitment materials.

Subdivision 4.142 Compensation
A MDA will maintain the Faculty Member at 100% workload and 100% of their budgeted salary unless the Faculty Member agrees to a reduction in workload during the term of the MDA.

Subdivision 4.143 Eligibility
Any Faculty Member with a probationary, tenured, term, renewable term, or clinical appointment, is eligible to request to take a MDA during any semester in which the Faculty Member has been approved for continuous FMLA leave that is expected to exceed five (5) weeks. Alternatively, any tenure-track or tenured Faculty Member who (a) has been designated as the primary caregiver for a child and (b) takes FMLA leave due to birth, adoption or foster care placement of the child is eligible to request to take a MDA within 12 months of the birth/adoption/placement of the child. The University reserves the right to impose limitations on the number of MDAs that a faculty member may take during their employment with the University.

Subdivision 4.144 Procedure
Eligible faculty interested in a MDA should contact their Department Head to request a MDA. The Department Head and Dean, in consultation with the Associate Provost for Faculty, will work with the eligible faculty to develop a MDA that meets the needs of the Faculty Member and the department. The terms of the MDA, if agreeable to the Faculty Member, Department Head and Dean, will be memorialized in a memorandum of understanding with the Faculty Member. The Department Head or Dean reserve the right to decline to grant a requested MDA if granting such a request would cause an undue hardship to the department or college (e.g., inability to cover necessary courses), the decision which may be appealed to the Faculty Petition Committee.

Subdivision 4.145 Return Obligation
Faculty on a MDA are expected to follow the modified duties assignment as memorialized in the memorandum of understanding. When the MDA period has ended, the Faculty Member is required to submit a written report to the department head and dean with evidence of their accomplishments while on a MDA.

Faculty completing a MDA are also required to return to their standard duties for a minimum of two semesters following the MDA. If the faculty member leaves the University before two semesters have passed, the University reserves the right to require the Faculty Member to pay back any costs associated with the MDA.

Section 4.15 Professional Development Assignment

Subdivision 4.151 Definition
A Professional Development Assignment ("PDA") is a paid semester or academic year assignment awarded to a Faculty Member to undertake approved programs of study, research, or other professional activity.

Subdivision 4.152 Compensation
A Professional Development Assignment is awarded for one semester at regular salary or for an academic year at fifty percent (50%) of regular salary.

Paragraph 4.1521
Insurance and retirement benefits are maintained during the period of a Professional Development Assignment.

Paragraph 4.1522
The University may place limits on compensation received for professional services performed during the period of a Professional Development Assignment.

Subdivision 4.153 Eligibility

Paragraph 4.1531
Tenured Faculty Members are eligible to apply for a Professional Development Assignment. Probationary faculty after a successful third-year review are eligible to apply for professional development assignments. Priority shall be given to tenured faculty.

Paragraph 4.1532
A recipient of a Professional Development Assignment is ineligible for a subsequent Professional Development Assignment during the three (3) years of active service following an award.

Subdivision 4.154 Service or Financial Obligation

Paragraph 4.1541
Pursuant to state law and Board policy, the recipient of a Professional Development Assignment agrees to return to full-time employment for a period of not less than two years following the year of the award.

Paragraph 4.1542
Failure to meet the conditions of Paragraph 8.041 obligates the Faculty Member to pay the University an amount equal to all salaries and benefits received during the period of the assignment. If the Faculty Member returns for part of the requisite period the payback shall be adjusted pro rata.

Paragraph 4.1543
Every Faculty Member while on Professional Development Assignment shall be considered to be in regular full-time employment in the position from which the assignment is being taken during the period of the assignment, for the purpose of determining the Faculty Member's length of service.

Subdivision 4.155 Procedure

Paragraph 4.1551
A request for a Professional Development Assignment must be submitted no later than October 1 preceding the academic year in which the proposed assignment will be taken.

Paragraph 4.1552
A recipient must follow the program proposed in the Professional Development Assignment application unless a variance is approved by the Professional Development Assignment Committee, subject to concurrence by the Provost.

Paragraph 4.1553
Evaluation of applications for Professional Development Assignments will be carried out by a faculty committee chaired by the Provost or their designee without vote. Recommendations of the committee will be subject to approval by the President and the Board of Regents.

Section 4.16 Summer Research Fellowships
The university shall allocate funds for a number of Summer Research Fellowships each year. The Summer Research Fellowships shall consist of either four week or eight week periods during the months of May, June, or July. The details concerning application guidelines will be found on the Graduate College website, including the compensation and minimum number of total fellowships available for that year. These Summer Research Fellowships will be available to any full time tenured or tenure-track faculty with a current appointment except that recipients may not receive a Summer Research Fellowship in consecutive years.

During the summer fellowship period, recipients cannot generally hold another assignment or receive additional compensation from the university. However, recipients may receive compensation from other sources up to a total amount equal to their standard 1/9 salary if the projects funded by other sources also relate to the focus of the Summer Research Fellowship Proposal.
CHAPTER FIVE: PERSONNEL FILES

Section 5.0 Personnel Files
A personnel file will be maintained for each tenured and probationary Faculty Member. The file shall be located in the office of the Dean of the Faculty Member’s college unless otherwise determined by the University. If a change in location is determined, Faculty Members and the Faculty Leadership shall be notified in writing of the changed location.

Section 5.1 Right to Review
Each Faculty Member shall have the right to review the contents of their personnel file during regular working hours, or at such other time as mutually agreed on with the Dean of the College. The review will take place in the presence of the Dean of the College or their designee. Excluded from the review will be employment credentials, which are not designated by their source as available to be reviewed by the candidate.

Section 5.2 Right to Respond
The Faculty Member shall have the right to respond to all materials contained in their file. Such responses shall be attached to the related report and become part of the file.

Section 5.3 File Material Removal
A Faculty Member may request in writing removal of any item in the file. Such request for removal must be received within one year of placement of the item in the file. The written request shall also contain a rationale for the requested removal. If the Dean and Provost agree, the item shall be removed from the personnel file. If the Dean and Provost deny the request for removal, they will notify the Faculty Member in writing within thirty (30) days from the date of the written request including reason for the denial. For purposes of this section, days shall mean class days during the regular academic year.

Section 5.4 Notice of Complaint
Any complaints directed toward a Faculty Member, which are placed in their personnel file shall be called promptly to the Faculty Member’s attention in writing and identified as being added to the file.

Section 5.5 Right to Copies
The Faculty Member shall have the right to copies of the contents of the file at their expense at the rate of five cents ($.05) per page.
CHAPTER SIX: STAFF REDUCTION

Section 6.0 Attrition
When a staff reduction occurs, it shall be accomplished through attrition wherever possible.

Section 6.1 Notice
Prior to informing any Faculty Member of layoff, the University shall notify Faculty Leadership of the possible layoff(s) and shall give Faculty Leadership reasonable time to consult with the University.

Section 6.2 Definition
“Program area,” for the purposes of specific implementation of this Chapter, is a related cluster of credit-bearing courses that constitute a coherent body of study within a discipline or set of related disciplines that lead to a degree. All Faculty Members shall be notified of their program area assignments on or before October 1 of each year. If a Faculty Member does not receive notification on or before October 1, the Faculty Member will remain in the program area assigned in their most recent notification.

Faculty Members who are part of the UNI Rod Library employed as Library Faculty shall be notified that their program area assignment is “Library Services,” unless Library Faculty become attached to a degree program, at which time that degree program shall become their program area assignment.

Section 6.3 Order of Reduction
In the event that a staff reduction occurs, the University shall lay off Faculty Members in accordance with the following standards:

Subdivision 6.31 Tenured Faculty
A Faculty Member with tenure shall not be laid off as long as a probationary, temporary, term, renewable term, or clinical Faculty Member remains in the program area where the layoff occurs.

Subdivision 6.32 Probationary Faculty
Full-time probationary Faculty Members shall not be laid off as long as temporary, term, renewable term, and clinical Faculty Members remain in the program area where the layoff occurs. When this clause is used by the University, the University shall provide the appropriate seniority list to implement this clause.

Subdivision 6.33 Criteria for Reduction-Nontenured
In determining which nontenured Faculty Member in the program area where the layoff occurs is to be laid off, the following criteria are to be used:

Paragraph 6.331

decision was in violation of Section 12.2 of this Chapter.

Section 12.5 Dismissal of Tenured Faculty Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, in the case of dismissal of a tenured Faculty Member the University shall have the burden of proving just cause for the dismissal by a preponderance of the evidence, and in such case the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding.

Section 12.6 Disposition of the Arbitrator’s Report

Subdivision 12.61 President’s Review
The report of the arbitrator, the Provost’s disposition of the appeal, and the record made in the case, shall be forwarded to the President for review. After reviewing the record, the arbitrator’s report, and the Provost’s disposition, the President will determine what administrative response, if any, shall be taken. In making such decision, the President will give great weight to the report of the arbitrator. There will be no oral argument before the President, but either party may submit a brief in support of the party’s position. Such brief shall be submitted within fourteen (14) calendar days of the receipt of the arbitrator’s report by the parties. The decision of the President shall be issued within sixty (60) calendar days following receipt of such briefs (or the expiration of time to submit such briefs).

notify the parties in writing of their final decision.

In those appeals in which the Faculty Member has requested and obtained the assistance of United Faculty in pursuing such appeal, the costs for the services of the arbitrator will be borne equally by the University and United Faculty. Section 4.3 Definition of Scholarship/Creative Activity

Scholarship and creative activity are those discipline-specific or professional expertise activities that result in a tangible artifact or outcome. Scholarship makes use of the faculty member’s professional expertise, and it must be of appropriate quality and be disseminated. The university recognizes, evaluates, and rewards three types of scholarship/creative activity (Discovery, Integration, Application), which are defined and illustrated below. The definitions include but are not limited to the examples provided. The Departmental Standards and Criteria Document may provide additional specific examples of products or outcomes in order to demonstrate these forms of scholarship. The Departmental Standards and Criteria Document must be consistent with Sections 4.4 and 4.5 of this Chapter and Chapter 3 of this Handbook.

Approved by Faculty Handbook Committee, 4/20/18

Subdivision 4.32 Integration

Integration is the use of knowledge found within or across disciplines to create an original understanding or insight that reveals larger intellectual patterns. Examples include the writing of a textbook, curating an artistic exhibition, editing an anthology, or integrative work that summarizes or extends what is known about a topic or process. Being awarded a competitive external grant may be considered Integration scholarship. Integration scholarship is peer reviewed and may appear in a variety of outlets (see “Peer Review” in Chapter 3). Products produced from the acquisition of grants may contribute to the scholarship of Integration.

Approved by Faculty Handbook Committee, 4/20/18

Subdivision 4.33 Application

Application brings discipline-specific knowledge to bear to address a significant issue or problem or to influence a current or future condition. Examples include producing a technical report; performing public policy analysis; creating program, curriculum, or tools that are adopted across the state/nation; evaluating a community-based program; or being awarded a patent. Application scholarship is distinguished from service by the presence of peer review and may appear in a variety of outlets (see “Peer Review” in Chapter 3). Products produced from the acquisition of grants may contribute to the scholarship of Application.

Approved by Faculty Handbook Committee, 4/20/18
Section 4.4 Scholarship/Creative Activity for Probationary Faculty

Probationary faculty are expected to engage in the scholarship/creative activity of Discovery, including the scholarship of teaching and learning when it produces original knowledge. Some departments may also evaluate and reward peer-reviewed Integration or Application scholarship/creative activity when consistent with disciplinary expectations and applicable accreditation requirements. Typically, twenty-five percent of a probationary faculty member’s workload shall be allocated for scholarly or creative work, unless a different portfolio has been assigned to the faculty member.

See Chapter 3 of this Handbook regarding more specific standards and documentation requirements for the purposes of annual review, post-tenure review, and promotion.

Approved by Faculty Handbook Committee, 4/20/18

Section 4.5 Scholarship/Creative Activity for Tenured Faculty

Tenured faculty may engage in Discovery, Integration, or Application research within their field of expertise. Each type of scholarship shall be recognized as legitimate for the purposes of annual review, post-tenure review, and promotion to full professor when it has undergone peer review that attests to its acceptable quality and meaningful impact. Faculty members are expected to collaborate with their colleagues and department head to ensure their scholarship is consistent with requirements for scholarship for program accreditation. Typically, twenty-five percent of a tenured faculty member’s workload shall be allocated for scholarly or creative work, unless a different portfolio has been assigned to the faculty member.

See Chapter 3 regarding more specific standards and documentation requirements for the purposes of annual review, post-tenure review, and promotion.
